Mary E. Anderson, aged 16 and a widow with a baby, was an applicant for shelter at Waynesboro, La., Louisville. She said she was from Pineville.

The Bell Circuit Court, the January term of which was opened Monday morning, has nearly 700 civil and over 200 criminal cases on its docket.

Right You Are!
Carla S. Huff.

Mr. J. S. Huff of this city is now traveling for the Mayville Carriage Company. We had hoped that our neighbor would land a "good thing" at Frankfort, but it seems that he did not. He has been too active in his political work to get much. Those who work hardest for a party generally get the least.

ANOTHER SHOOTING SCAPE

MR. HIRAM T. WARDER AND MR. VINCE HAVE A ROUND.

The shooting occurred at Orangeburg yesterday—Vinegar seriously wounded, but Mr. Warder escapes unhurt.

More bloodshed! Yesterday afternoon there were exciting times in the staid old town of Orangeburg, this county.

Mr. Hiram T. Warder, a well known farmer of that neighborhood, has several tenants on his lands.

Among them is Mr. R. W. Warder, who came some time ago from Rowan county.

It is said that landlord and tenant had several previous misunderstandings.

For some days, off and on, Mr. Warder has been in Orangeburg, and the report is that he had been drinking.

Yesterday Mr. Vinegar and Mr. George Washburn were hauling wood to town, and among their things was a double barrel shot gun.

Mr. Warder was in town also, and with him a like weapon, loaded with buckshot.

This looks like both sides were expecting trouble and that both were prepared for it.

They met, but how or under just what circumstances has not been learned.

However, it appears that Mr. Vinegar attempted to fire on Mr. Warder.

The coup missed, but the barrel did not discharge.

Mr. Warder responded promptly with his piece, three buckshot taking effect in Vinegar—one in the upper part of the breast, one in the side and one in the stomach.

After he was thus wounded Mr. Vinegar fired the second barrel of his piece, and recapping the first barrel fired it also, both charges taking effect in the casing of a door in which Mr. Warder was standing, without injuring him.

Here the shooting ceased, Mr. Vinegar falling from the effects of his wounds.

Dr. Hord was summoned, and he set about getting the shot out of Mr. Vinegar.

His most serious wound is the one in the stomach, and it is thought it may prove fatal.

It will be remembered that on the 3d of last August Mr. Warder had a quarrel with Mr. Washburn—the same person mentioned above—in which the latter was badly cut, Mr. Warder being shot several times.

On account of this difficulty the parties were indicted by the Grand Jury, but at the last term of the Circuit Court the indictment against Washburn was fled away, the case against Mr. Warder being continued till next term.

It does not appear from all we can learn that Mr. Washburn took any part in yesterday's difficulty.

The cause is a result of great strength and endurance. Nothing hinders it until the proverbial "last straw" is added to its burden. The human digestive system is very much like a barrel. It is really astonishing how much abuse it will stand. Sometimes, however, something worse than usual will be eaten, and this will break through the barrel, and here it sticks—that is, constipation. WE'RE FOR AMERICA! AMERICANS!

The Ledger today prints a remarkably strong article from Editor Roberts of the Kentucky Leader, who is on the ground at Frankfort and who is fully conversant with the facts of which he speaks. The only mistake that Brother Roberts makes is in supposing that such qualities as gratitude or decency enter into modern politics. The man who demands the right methods is generally the one who triumphs, no matter what his capacity for place.

Tax deficit in Uncle Sam's Treasury for the eight days of January is $1,044,732.30, for the fiscal year $20,039,439.32, and for the Cleveland Administration, $131,933,095.90. Now isn't that a glorious record!

REPRESENTATIVE SPARKS has introduced in the Ohio Legislature a bill to prevent the flouting of foreign flags from public buildings, state or municipal. It is provided, however, that if any foreigner is a guest of the state or of a municipality within the state, the flag of his nation may be displayed from the public building on proclamation of the Governor. There's the right ring in this bill. Whenever a foreigner swears allegiance to the United States, the Stars and Stripes becomes his flag. If he prefers another one to it, he should be absolved from all allegiance to this country and go where that flag will protect him if it can.

A WASHINGTON correspondent says the feeling grows there that the President in rushing his midnight bond sale out ahead of action by Congress, to which he appealed for relief, played a dastardly double game. It is his presence made a popular loan, and yet he has surrounded a transaction which should be simple and direct with such technicalities and delays that the general public will get none of the securities tantalizingly held in light.

It is not expected that more than $10,000,000 in gold will be obtained from sources outside of the banks or the Morgan syndicate, and as the gold reserve dwindles there is deep satisfaction in Administration circles over the "objection" which is being given the country and the civilized world in the interest of financiers. It matters not to those charged with guarding the interests of the people that the President has tied his own hands and those of Congress for thirty days to permit the syndicate to reap the benefit of the destruction in value which must result from such a situation.

There is no possible way in which the Treasury can be assisted until February 3, except by the passage of the Digby Emergency Bill, and even this measure it is predicted will be vetoed. Public men are aghast at the abyss of uncertainty which the Administration is running the Government into that former bond syndicate contracts may be "indicated."

ASKS FOR FAIR PLAY!

EDITOR ROBERTS OF KENTUCKY CALLS A HALT.

"It Would Have Been Better For the Future of Republicanism If the Democrats Had Carried the State."

Editorial Correspondence Lexington Leader.
FRANKFORT, January 8th.—A visit to Frankfort at this time and a study of the Senatorial situation are enough to make a Republican smile with the Democrats had carried the General Assembly in the late election, and I firmly believe it would have been better for the future of the Republican party had they done so.

The Leader has avoided taking sides in the Senatorial canvass, believing that in its position as a representative party newspaper it could not espouse the cause of one candidate against another in a contest within the party ranks.

Still holding to this view of the duty of The Leader to the party, I must enter a protest against the character of warfare being waged on Hon. W. G. Hunter by the combined Senatorial opposition, or at least those pretending to act in its interest.

The tactics resorted to under the inspiration of the "Anything to beat Hunter" war cry would do credit to Democratic caucuses in the palmiest days of that party, and if continued until a nominal election is made we fear leave the party in a demoralized and disorganized condition, unfit to give battle to Democracy when the supreme test must come.

Chairman Hunter's splendid service to the party in the last campaign certainly entitled him to decent treatment in a contest for the prize that his political genius did much to put in reach of Republicans, and the covert newspaper attacks on him are not creditable to the friends of the opposition.

The Leader has the greatest admiration for all the Senatorial candidates and it will not attempt in any way to influence the action of the caucus, but it protests against miserable mud slinging at a man whom a few weeks ago every Republican in the state was praising to the skies.

The Leader would be delighted to see Wilson, Yerkes, Holt, Evans, Deany, Debow, Morrow or Hunter elected to the United States Senate, and makes no special appeal in behalf of any one of them, but in the interest of party harmony and decent politics it protests against the character of the contest now on at Frankfort.

THE SYNDICATE

Will Make a Bid for the Entire Bond Issue.

Their Offer So Advantageous Other Propositions Will Be Ignored.

The Price the Syndicate Will Pay Is Known Only by Mr. Morgan—It Will, However, Be Considerably More Than Was Paid by Him Last February.

New York, Jan. 10.—From a subscribing member of J. Pierpont Morgan bond syndicate, the following facts have been obtained:
The syndicate expects to secure the entire $100,000,000 four per cent. bonds which are to be sold by the treasury on February 3.
Mr. Morgan will bid for the entire issue and expects to be awarded the entire $100,000,000. It will take all or none.
The reason for Mr. Morgan's confidence of the entire success is that he will make an offer so advantageous that no other proposition can stand in his way.

This offer is to purchase the entire $100,000,000, paying principal and premium in gold and in addition furnish an amount of gold equal to one-third of the issue or $33,333,333 in exchange for greenbacks. The government gold reserve will thus not only be brought up to the recognized limit but will have a large surplus for its protection.

The price which the syndicate will offer is not exactly known by anyone beside Mr. Morgan. It will be considerably more than $104½ paid last February. This low premium was paid because of the provision in the contract compelling the syndicate to protect the treasury reserve. No such contract will be made this time. Therefore a higher price will be paid. The figure is believed to be $110.

The syndicate is now accumulating gold from every available source. Members of the syndicate will be at liberty to make individual bids besides the syndicate bid.
This is the state of affairs today. The position will probably hold until February 3, without any change of important details. The president and secretary of the treasury have no agreement, private or public, with the syndicate. They know, however, what is Mr. Morgan's intention and know it when the public call was issued.

It completely destroyed the village of Zanzabad and partly destroyed other villages. Three hundred persons perished in the several villages.

The accused men were released, but the captain and mate are held.

Army Officer Killed.

FORT ROBINSON, Neb., Jan. 10.—Officers and members of the post were excited Thursday afternoon by the suicide of First Lieut. He shot himself through the heart.
